

Press Release

Update on release of electronic books in 2018

5/9/2017

Metamode Institute on Public Policy

Press Release

Update on release of electronic books in 2018

Toronto, August 31, 2017. Early in 2018, eight electronic books will be released and made available online in pdf format. They are part of a Legacy Series project undertaken by Dr. Albert Fiorino to consolidate papers and writings produced under the auspices of the Metamode Institute between 1984 and 2007. They include the following titles:

- ✚ Shifting Gears
Transforming Public Policy
- ✚ Cut to the Chase
Reinventing Public Education
- ✚ Voice of One
- ✚ Capitalism and Democracy Revisited
- ✚ Rationality Papers
Redirecting rational choice
- ✚ Heading for a Crossroads
Named New Beginnings
A personal journey into the world of Islam
- ✚ Israeli-Palestinian Conflict
An actual never-ending story
- ✚ Body Politic Reset
Tweaking our social and cultural dynamics for a more peaceful world order

In the meantime, a preview of these eight publications has been posted on the Metamode Institute's web site where Dr. Fiorino provides an overview of each of the electronic books.

This Legacy Series project includes several other titles which Dr. Fiorino hopes to complete in the coming years. Two of these titles will be: The Importance of Being Human Once More Proclaimed, a personal tribute to the late Anglican divine and scholar, the Reverend Dr. Lionel Eric Mascall; and Taking Out the Messenger to Save the Message, a restatement of Christianity for the times.

About the Metamode Institute on Public Policy

The Institute was founded in 1997 as a small discussion group meeting for the most part at St. Michael's College. It was incorporated in 2001 as a non-profit organization, as a think tank focusing on public policy. One of its main goals is to promote a forward-thinking approach to public policy.